5 Parliamentary Works Sponsor Body

Ordered, That, under the provisions of Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the Parliamentary Buildings (Restoration and Renewal) Act 2019, Sir Robert Syms having resigned as a Parliamentary member of the Parliamentary Works Sponsor Body, Ian Levy be appointed to the Body in his place.—(Mr Jacob Rees-Mogg.)

6 United Kingdom Internal Market Bill: Reasons Committee

Paul Scully reported that the Committee had agreed the following Reasons:

Lords Amendments 1, 19 and 34

Because they will create legal uncertainty, which would be disruptive to business.

Lords Amendments 8, 9, 12, 13, 17, 30 and 56

Because the omission of Schedule 1 by Lords Amendment 56 in consequence of replacing clause 10 with the new clause proposed by Lords Amendment 12, and the omission of powers to amend provisions of Parts 1 and 2 (including Schedules 1 and 2) by Lords Amendments 8, 9, 12, 17 and 30, would result in the Secretary of State being unable to respond quickly to the changing needs of the UK internal market.

Lords Amendments 10, 11, 16, 18 and 31 to 33

Because a number of the Lords Amendments were inconsistent with each other or with Lords Amendments proposing the deletion of powers to amend provisions of Part 1 or 2 and it is appropriate, following the restoration of those powers, for the Lords to reconsider the Lords Amendments.

Lords Amendments 14 and 52 to 55

Because they were consequential upon Lords Amendments 42 to 47 and so the changes they made are no longer needed as a result of the Commons disagreement to Lords Amendments 42 to 47.

Lords Amendment 15

Because the consents required by it are inappropriate for guidance relating to matters which are not devolved in Scotland, Wales or Northern Ireland.

Lords Amendment 42

Because clause 42 protects Northern Ireland's place in the United Kingdom's customs territory, as provided for under the Northern Ireland Protocol.

Lords Amendment 44

Because the regulation-making power conferred by clause 44 provides a necessary safety net to ensure Ministers can secure that qualifying Northern Ireland goods have full, unfettered access to the whole of the UK internal market.

Lords Amendment 45

Because it is necessary for the Secretary of State to have the power to ensure there is no confusion or ambiguity in UK law about the interpretation of Article 10 of the Northern Ireland Protocol.

Lords Amendment 46

Because it is necessary to codify in legislation the existing practice, whereby aid is notified to the European Commission by the Foreign Secretary through the United Kingdom Mission in Brussels.

Lords Amendment 47

Because the Commons consider it necessary, in order to avoid confusion in domestic law about clauses 44 and 45 and regulations made under them and provide clarity for courts, businesses, and public bodies, for those clauses and regulations to have effect notwithstanding possible inconsistency or incompatibility with any relevant national or international law.

Lords Amendments 48 and 49

Because they would alter financial arrangements made by the Commons, and the Commons do not offer any further Reason, trusting that this Reason may be deemed sufficient.

Lords Amendment 50

Because it would involve a charge on public funds and the Commons do not offer any further Reason, trusting that this Reason may be deemed sufficient.

Lords Amendment 51

Because it is necessary to reserve to the United Kingdom Parliament the right to legislate for a system to regulate the provision by public bodies of subsidies which are or may be distortive or harmful and to avoid the risk of inconsistent regulation of such subsidies in the different parts of the United Kingdom.

Lords Amendments 57 and 61

Because the existing functions of the Competition and Markets Authority and the functions under Part 4 need to be kept separate and it is inappropriate for the devolved authorities to appoint members of the Board of that Authority.

The Reasons were agreed to.

7 Adjournment
