BUSINESS OF THE DAY

1. PLANNING AND LOCAL REPRESENTATION: TEN MINUTE RULE MOTION

Up to 20 minutes (Standing Order No. 23)

Rachel Hopkins

That leave be given to bring in a Bill to give people who have made representations about development plans the right to participate in associated examination hearings; to require public consultation on development proposals; to grant local authorities power to apply local design standards for permitted development and to refuse permitted development proposals that would be detrimental to the health and wellbeing of an individual or community; to make planning permission for major housing schemes subject to associated works starting within two years; and for connected purposes.

Notes:

The Member moving and a Member opposing this Motion may each speak for up to 10 minutes.

That this House declines to give a Second Reading to the Health and Care Bill because it allows private healthcare companies to sit on boards deciding how NHS funding is spent, opens the door for further outsourcing of contracts without proper scrutiny, transparency and accountability, introduces a model of healthcare that incentivises cuts and the closure of services, fails to reverse years of privatisation, under-funding and unfair pay, and does not ensure that the NHS is a fully publicly funded, accountable and publicly delivered service providing free high quality care to everyone who needs it.

Keir Starmer
Angela Rayner
Jonathan Ashworth
Justin Madders
Thangam Debbonaire
Sir Alan Campbell

That this House declines to give a Second Reading to the Health and Care Bill, notwithstanding the need for a plan for greater integration between health services and social care services and for restrictions on junk food advertising to improve population health outcomes, because the Bill represents a top down reorganisation in a pandemic leading to a loss of local accountability, fails to reform social care, allows further outsourcing permitting the private sector to sit on local boards and fails to reinstate the NHS as the default provider, fails to introduce a plan to bring down waiting lists for routine NHS treatment or tackle the growing backlog of care, fails to put forward plans to increase the size of the NHS workforce and see them better supported, and fails to put forward a plan that would give the NHS the resources it needs to invest in modern equipment, repair the crumbling NHS estate or ensure comprehensive, quality healthcare.

That this House declines to give a Second Reading to the Health and Care Bill because it does not solve any of the problems that have brought the social care sector into crisis, where 1.5 million people are missing out on the care they need; calls on the Government to fix the social care crisis, as it promised to do nearly two years ago, through cross-party talks before proceeding to reform the NHS in order to achieve meaningful and comprehensive integration that properly alleviates pressures facing the NHS staff and carers; is concerned that awarding more powers to the Secretary of State would lead to political interference in the day to day running of the NHS; notes that this is not the right time for a major reorganisation of the NHS in the middle of the pandemic, particularly given the unprecedented numbers of people waiting for treatment and the workforce burnout the NHS faces; and further notes the priority of the Government should be on recovery and ensuring the NHS is not overwhelmed as a third wave of covid-19 progresses.

The scheme for virtual participation in proceedings and the revised Members' Guide to Chamber proceedings are available on the intranet. The Members' Guide to Westminster Hall proceedings is available on the intranet.

PARTICIPATION IN WESTMINSTER HALL

On 25 February the House agreed a motion to resume sittings in Westminster Hall on Monday 8 March. The Order agreed on 16 June extends provision for Members to participate virtually until the House rises for summer recess. These sittings continue to take place in the Boothroyd Room in Portcullis House.

Call lists will be published at around 12.30pm on a Monday for debates that day and 6.30pm the previous day for debates on a Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Members are able to participate physically or virtually, but should note Mr Speaker's request for Members to participate virtually in proceedings wherever possible. Members who wish to participate physically should note this when they contact the Speaker's Office. For 60-minute and 90-minute debates, and debates scheduled by the Petitions Committee, only Members who are on the call list are permitted to attend. There are 11 additional seats in the public gallery and a further 6 seats at the side table for Members in the latter part of the call list from which they can listen to debates and move onto the horseshoe when spaces become available. Members should clean the microphone

- 10.15am Topical Questions to the Secretary of State for International Trade

PRESENTATION OF BILLS

Bill to make provision about children's access to medical services; and for connected purposes.

BACKBENCH BUSINESS

- Northern Ireland Protocol

Sir Bernard Jenkin

That this House supports the stated aims of the Northern Ireland Protocol of the EU Withdrawal Agreement, upholding the Belfast (Good Friday) Agreement in all its dimensions and respecting the integrity of the EU and UK internal markets; recognises that new infrastructure and controls at the border between Northern Ireland and the Irish Republic must be avoided to prevent dangers to peace and to encourage stability and trade; notes the far larger volume of trade between Great Britain and Northern Ireland; regards flexibility as being in the mutual interests of the EU and UK, given the unique constitutional and political circumstances of Northern Ireland; regrets EU threats of legal action; further notes the EU and UK mutual commitment to adopt measures with a view to avoiding controls at the ports and airports of Northern Ireland to the extent possible; is conscious of the need to avoid separating the Unionist community from the rest of the UK, consistent with the Belfast (Good Friday) Agreement; and further notes that, whilst a minority of provisions of the Northern Ireland Protocol have not been applied to GB-NI trade during the various grace periods and no goods have entered the EU threatening the EU internal market, also recognises that Article 13(8) of the Protocol provides for potentially superior arrangements to those currently in place.

■ Beijing winter Olympics and Chinese Government sanctions

Tim Loughton

That this House believes that the 2022 Winter Olympic games should not be hosted in a country whose Government is credibly accused of mass atrocity crimes; and calls on the UK Government to decline invitations for its representatives to attend the 2022 Beijing Olympic Games unless the Government of the People's Republic of China ends the atrocities taking place in the Xianjing region and lifts the sanctions imposed on UK Parliamentarians, citizens and entities.

Afterwards

NATIONALITY AND BORDERS BILL: SECOND READING (DAY 1)Caroline Lucas

That this House declines to give a Second Reading to the Nationality and Borders Bill because it fails to meet the UK's commitment to the Refugee Convention, would create a discriminatory two-tier system of refugee rights, would criminalise asylum seekers for exercising their legal right to seek asylum, makes provision for offshore processing of asylum-seekers, fails to outline the UK government's statutory obligations on resettlement, would increase pressure on the judicial system through an accelerated appeals process that represents a deliberate attempt to reduce access to justice, imposes medically unsound evidence requirements that would retraumatise victims, would increase delays within the Home Office and would leave many people in limbo as the backlog of asylum claims increases, does not include provision for a comprehensive data-sharing firewall between public services, labour inspectorates and immigration enforcement which is necessary to protect victims of trafficking, would leave people seeking protection at greater risk of exploitation and fails to address the need for faster, more efficient and humane decision-making within the Home Office.

NATIONALITY AND BORDERS BILL: WAYS AND MEANSJesse Norman

That, for the purposes of any Act resulting from the Nationality and Borders Bill, it is expedient to authorise:

- (1) the charging of sums of money under the Act;
- (2) any increase attributable to the Act in the sums chargeable under any other Act; and
- (3) the payment of sums in to the Consolidated Fund.

That—

(1) The following Standing Order be made:

IEP recommendations for sanctions and the Recall of MPs Act 2015

(1) The Chair of the Independent Expert Panel shall send to the Chair and Members of the Committee on Standards and to the Clerk of that Committee any report from a sub-panel of the IEP which he has referred to the Clerk of the House under subparagraph (5)(d) of Standing Order No. 150A (Independent Expert Panel) and which contains a determination for a sanction that would, if made by the Committee on Standards, engage the provisions of the Recall of MPs Act 2015.

(2) Where a report has been sent to the Committee on Standards in accordance with paragraph (1) of this Order the Committee on Standards shall make a report to the House in relation to the Member named in that report, setting out a recommendation for a suspension equal to that determined by the sub-panel to run concurrently with any sanction imposed as a result of the sub-panel's determination.

(3) Reports under paragraph (2) must be made no later than on the third sitting day after the report of the IEP sub-panel is sent to members of the Committee on Standards, save that the day on which the report is sent shall not be counted in calculating this period.

(4) If the Committee on Standards is unable to meet within 3 sitting days, the Chair of that Committee shall, if satisfied that the report from the IEP sub-panel has been sent to all members of the Committee, make the report to the House from the Committee required under paragraph (2).

(3) The provisions of Standing Order (IEP recommendations for sanctions and the Recall of MPs Act 2015) shall be applied in respect of any report from the Independent Expert Panel published before this Order is agreed which contains a determination for a sanction that, if it had been made by the Committee on Standards, would have engaged the provisions of the Recall of MPs Act 2015, save that, notwithstanding the provisions of that Standing Order, the sanction recommended by the Committee on Standards in such a case shall be limited to 14 days and the provisions of Standing Order No. 45A (Suspension of salary of Members suspended) shall not apply in respect of any suspension imposed in consequence of such a recommendation, and the provisions of the Standing Order shall be interpreted as if the day this Order is agreed had been the day on which the Report was sent to Members of the Committee on Standards in accordance with that Standing Order.
