8 Nationality and Borders Bill: Reasons Committee

Tom Pursglove reported that the Committee had agreed the following Reasons:

Lords Amendment 4G

Because the Commons consider that it is appropriate to provide that a failure to comply with the requirements of section 40(5) of the British Nationality Act 1981 does not affect the validity of a deprivation of citizenship order made before the coming into force of clause 9.

Lords Amendment 5B

Because the Commons consider that Lords Amendment 5B makes unnecessary provision.

Lords Amendment 6B

Because the Commons consider that it is possible to accord different treatment to refugees depending on whether they have complied with the criteria set out in clause 11 in a way which is compliant with the Refugee Convention.

Lords Amendment 7B

Because the Commons consider that asylum-seekers (save in limited circumstances) and their adult dependants should not be permitted to work while a decision on their claim for asylum is pending, even for a trial period of 4 years.

Lords Amendment 7C

Because it is consequential on Lords Amendment 7B to which the Commons disagrees.

Lords Amendment 8B

Because the Commons do not consider it appropriate that the commencement of clause 15 should be dependent on the conclusion of international agreements with other States, even for a period of 5 years.

Lords Amendment 8C

Because it is consequential on Lords Amendment 8B to which the Commons disagrees.

Lords Amendment 10B

Because it would alter the financial arrangements made by the Commons, and the Commons do not offer any further reason, trusting that this Reason may be deemed sufficient.

Lords Amendment 11B

Because the Commons consider that requiring a numerical target for the resettlement of refugees to the United Kingdom each year is neither necessary nor appropriate.

Lords Amendment 13B

Because the Commons do not consider that it is appropriate to replace the proposed offence of knowingly arriving in the United Kingdom without valid entry clearance where it is required with an offence of knowingly arriving in breach of a deportation order.

Lords Amendment 20B

Because the Commons consider that the offence of facilitating the entry of an asylum seeker into the United Kingdom should be capable of prosecution whether or not the defendant has a reasonable excuse for doing so.

Lords Amendment 25B

Because the Commons consider that limiting the circumstances in which a competent authority can disqualify an identified potential victim of slavery or human trafficking from protection in the manner proposed would prevent the disqualification of persons who are a threat to public order and whom the United Kingdom is permitted to disqualify under the terms of the Trafficking Convention.

Lords Amendment 26B

Because it would involve a charge on public funds, and the Commons do not offer any further reason, trusting that this Reason may be deemed sufficient.

Lords Amendment 53B

Because the Commons do not consider it necessary for a safe State to be prescribed by order before persons can be removed there, or for the ability to remove a person to a safe State to be dependent on the laying before Parliament of the costs of arrangements made with a safe State.

Lords Amendment 53C

Because it is consequential on Lords Amendment 53B to which the Commons disagrees.

Lords Amendment 53D

Because it is consequential on Lords Amendment 53B to which the Commons disagrees.

The Reasons were agreed to.
