Subject: Achieving economic growth

Amendment proposed, at the end of the Question, to add 'but respectfully regret that the Gracious Speech fails to bring forward immediately an emergency budget to tackle the cost of living crisis or to set out a new approach to the economy that will end 12 years of slow growth and high taxation under successive Conservative Governments.'.—(Rachel Reeves.)

Question put, That the Amendment be made.

Ayes: 229 (Tellers: Liz Twist, Jessica Morden)

Noes: 312 (Tellers: Michael Tomlinson, Gareth Johnson)

Question accordingly negatived.

Another Amendment proposed, at the end of the Question, to add 'but respectfully regret that the Gracious Speech fails to support unpaid carers despite a Bill having been prepared, fails to tackle issues in SEND education provision and does nothing to ensure pupils affected by the pandemic get extra support to catch up missed education, is not sufficiently ambitious in tackling the cost of living crisis and should include provision for an emergency tax cut cutting the top rate of VAT from 20 per cent to 17.5 per cent; further regret that the Gracious Speech fails to tackle violence against women and girls, nor does it tackle fraud and scams, does nothing to provide safe and legal routes to sanctuary for refugees fleeing war and persecution, does nothing to tackle the chronic shortage of dentists and GPs which results in long waiting times for patients requiring essential treatment, ignores the growing waiting times for ambulances, does not reverse the misguided cut to the armed forces of up to 10,000 troops, and fails to restore with immediate effect the 0.7 per cent target of GNI for international development spending.'.—(Ed Davey.)

Question put forthwith, That the Amendment be made (Standing Order No. 33).

Another Amendment proposed, at the end of the Question, to add 'but respectfully regret that the Gracious Speech fails to include bills that protect workers' rights, tackle the cost of living crisis, or the climate emergency; further regret that the Gracious Speech does not contain provision to uplift benefits and implement a windfall tax on companies which are benefiting from significantly increased profits as a result of impacts associated with the pandemic or the current international situation; and reject the proposals both for a Brexit Freedoms

Bill, which will undermine devolution, and the Bill of Rights, which will weaken human rights protections.'.—(Ian Blackford.)

Question put forthwith, That the Amendment be made (Standing Order No. 33).

The House divided.
