5. RESTORATION AND RENEWAL OF THE PALACE OF WESTMINSTER

Up to two hours after the commencement of the Business of the House (Today) motion (if that motion is agreed to)

Sir Charles Walker

That this House:

reaffirms its commitment to preserving the Palace of Westminster for future generations and ensuring the safety of all those who work in and visit the Palace, now and in the future;

notwithstanding the Resolution of 31 January 2018, welcomes the report from the House of Commons and House of Lords Commissions proposing a new mandate for the Restoration and Renewal works and a new governance structure to support them;

accordingly endorses the recommendations set out in the Commissions' report; and in consequence, approves the establishment of a joint department of the two Houses, under the terms of the Parliament (Joint Departments) Act 2007.

Amendment (b)

Andrea Leadsom

Chris Grayling

Chris Bryant

Dame Meg Hillier

Sir Geoffrey Clifton-Brown

Leave out from the end of line 4 to the end and add:

'notes that on 31 January 2018 the House endorsed the unanimous conclusion of the Joint Committee of both Houses that a full and timely decant of the Palace is the best and the most cost-effective delivery option;

believes that everything must be done to avoid unnecessary additional delay, cost and risk;

endorses the new mandate for the Restoration and Renewal works as recommended in paragraph 11 of the report by the House of Commons and House of Lords Commissions and the establishment of a joint department of the two Houses, under the terms of the Parliament (Joint Departments) Act 2007; and urges the Commissions to bring forward fully costed proposals for restoration and renewal works that can be completed within an eight-year full decant of both Houses as a matter of urgency.'

Amendment (a)

Thangam Debbonaire

At end add

'recognises that Government interference has undermined the works and that this has led to an increase in cost to the taxpayer and an increase in risk to those who work in and visit the Palace;

has grave concerns that any delay in starting the works will increase the cost to the taxpayer and the risk to people's safety further; and seeks for the works to be started as soon as possible to ensure maximum value for money.'
