

Tuesday 20 September 2022

CHAMBER AND COMMITTEE INFORMATION

This document is compiled by the Table Office as a guide to events and business expected to take place in and around the Chamber from Wednesday 21 September.

From Wednesday 21 September, Order Papers (Order of Business and Summary Agenda) setting out each day's business in the Chamber will be published in the usual way. These and other House business papers can be obtained online, on the HousePapers App or in hard copy from the Vote Office.

For further information on proceedings in the Chamber please contact the Table Office, via tableoffice@parliament.uk. The Table Office behind Speaker's chair will be open from 21 September.

WEDNESDAY 21 SEPTEMBER 2022

The House is expected to sit at 10.00am for Prayers and then to enable Members who wish to do so to take the oath or make the affirmation although this is not a procedural or statutory requirement. A note providing guidance will be circulated to Members and made available on the parliamentary intranet. The approximate timings for swearing-in are expected to be as follows but may be varied. Updated information will be provided on the annunciator.

10.05am – 11.30am: Cabinet members, Shadow Cabinet members, Privy Counsellors (who have not yet taken the oath or made the affirmation)

11:45am – 1.00pm: Other ministers, other Shadow ministers, and other Members elected before the 2015 Parliament

1.00pm to 2.30pm Sitting Suspended

2:30pm – 3.30pm: Members elected in the 2015-17 Parliament

3.45pm – 5.00pm: Members elected in the 2017-19 Parliament, Members elected in the 2019 Parliament

5.15pm – 6.00pm: Remaining Members elected in the 2019 Parliament

Members who miss their allocated window may join a later group. It is possible that cohorts will be invited earlier than the times indicated above.

Members with a proxy vote in place do not need to suspend their proxy vote in order to swear in. They would, however, need to suspend their proxy vote before taking part in any other proceedings this week.

There will be no Urgent Questions. Statements are not expected.

THURSDAY 22 SEPTEMBER 2022

The House is expected to sit. Business is expected to be as follows:

At the start of business there will be the opportunity for any Urgent Questions and Statements. The Leader of the House will make a business statement.

This will be followed by a general debate on the situation in Ukraine. The House will then be asked to consider Statutory Instruments relating to sanctions.

The House will also consider a range of procedural motions relating to the forthcoming recess, sittings of the House, primary legislation and Westminster Hall. This will include a motion proposing that the House return from the conference recess on Tuesday 11 October.

Public Bill Committees are not expected to sit.

FRIDAY 23 SEPTEMBER 2022

The House may be sitting.

COMMITTEES MEETING ON WEDNESDAY 21 SEPTEMBER

SELECT COMMITTEES

■ Work and Pensions Committee

The Thatcher Room, Portcullis House
9.00am (private)

■ Justice Committee

The Grimond Room, Portcullis House
2.00pm (private)

■ Committee of Selection

Room 13
4.30pm (private)