

Published: Wednesday 12 October 2022

Early Day Motions tabled on Tuesday 11 October 2022

Early Day Motions (EDMs) are motions for which no days have been fixed.

The number of signatories includes all members who have added their names in support of the Early Day Motion (EDM), including the Member in charge of the Motion.

EDMs and added names are also published on the EDM database at www.parliament.uk/edm

[R] Indicates that a relevant interest has been declared.

New EDMs

415 Pittencrieff Park's Accolade

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 1

Douglas Chapman

That this House commends Dunfermline's Pittencrieff Park on being voted one of Scotland's top five local favourites in a competition organised by green space charity Fields in Trust; notes this accolade comes just a few years after Pittencrieff Park, known locally as The Glen, was named 'best park in Scotland' in the same competition; thanks everyone who voted for the West Fife park as their own local favourite; praises Fife Council's parks staff and Friends of Pittencrieff Park volunteers for all the work they do to maintain the park as one of Scotland's best; and encourages all of Dunfermline and West Fife's citizens, along with our many visitors, to walk, cycle, play, relax and continue to enjoy one of the best open green spaces in Scotland.

416 MS Society report entitled Reduced to breaking point

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 1

Martyn Day

That this House welcomes Reduced to breaking point, the MS Society report on the cost of living for people with MS; is alarmed by the findings that 33 per cent. of people with MS are either struggling or really struggling on their current income; is concerned that three in ten of those suffering with MS who were surveyed have necessarily reduced their spending by reducing or stopping treatments and therapies; notes the need to provide an appropriate cost of living package which supports disabled people on means-tested income replacement benefits and non-means tested extra costs benefits; and supports the suggestion that the UK Government commits to raising benefits at least in line with inflation.

417 Return of correspondence on forecasting advice on the Plan for Growth

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 1

David Linden

That there be laid before this House a Return of any paper correspondence, emails, WhatsApp messages or other such communications held by the Treasury or the Prime Minister's Office relating to official advice or forecasting in respect of the Plan for Growth statement delivered on Friday 23 September 2022 sent between 6 September and 12 October 2022.

418 40th Anniversary of Ayrshire Fiddle Orchestra

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 7

Dr Philippa WhitfordRichard Thomson*Patricia Gibson*Carol Monaghan*Stewart Malcolm McDonald*David Linden*Deidre Brock

That this House congratulates the Ayrshire Fiddle Orchestra on the 40th anniversary of its founding, on 23rd October 1982, by Wallace & Lex Galbraith with the aim of developing the musical skills and a love of traditional Scottish Fiddle Music among young musicians in the South West of Scotland; notes that the orchestra has grown since those early beginnings to over 75 current members, including violinists, cellists, bass players, guitarists and percussionists, ranging from 10 to 19 years old; further notes that over 1,000 young musicians have played in the orchestra over the last 40 years, not just in Ayrshire but throughout Scotland and beyond, with regular overseas tours including Europe, USA, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, China and, most recently, Japan as well as several performances by senior members in the House of Commons; and recognises the contribution of the musical directors Wallace Galbraith MBE, Alistair McCulloch and David Moore, who have led the orchestra over the last four decades, as well as all the parents and volunteers who have contributed to its ongoing success.

419 Securing equal pay

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 1

Chris Stephens

This House recognises the years of pay discrimination that local government workers – primarily women – endured under Labour administrations in Scotland; recognises the determination shown by those workers in their fight for equal pay; welcomes the progress that councils across Scotland have made in providing equal pay settlements to thousands of workers; recognises the great lengths that are still required to completely end gender discrimination in the workplace and deliver equal pay; condemns the UK Government's attacks on workers' rights and trade unions through the Trade Union Act 2016 and calls for the Act to be abolished; and recognises the need for a Bill to strengthen workers' rights to end pay discrimination including statutory rights for union equality reps, allowing cross-employer comparators in equal pay cases, and stronger maternity, paternity and caring rights at work.

420 Death of Brother Andrew

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 1

Mr Gregory Campbell

That this House notes the passing of Anne van der Bijl, known as Brother Andrew, at the age of 94; further notes that he was born in the Netherlands and became famous for establishing a Christian Ministry smuggling millions of bibles to Christians across the globe in Countries where there was religious persecution; highlights that he helped to found the Open Doors Ministry which continues today, some 67 years from its inception, to help those suffering for their Christian beliefs; and recognises Brother Andrew's massively significant contribution to the Christian Church worldwide as worthy of the utmost respect.

421 Lee-Ann's Cafe, Larkhall

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 1

Angela Crawley

That this House congratulates Lee-Ann's Café in Larkhall on their success in The Food Awards Scotland 2022; recognises the hard work of owner Lee-Ann Shakir, as well as her excellent team of staff, in developing a successful business; celebrates Lee-Ann's offering of traditional delicacies in the heart of Larkhall as well as the warm and welcoming atmosphere of the café; understands the challenges faced by the hospitality industry as a result of the Covid-19 pandemic; further congratulates Lee-Ann's for overcoming these challenges to be named as the best café in Southwest Scotland; and wishes Lee-Ann and her staff team best wishes for the future.

422 Aroma Coffee and Kitchen in Larkhall

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 1

Angela Crawley

That this House congratulates Aroma Coffee and Kitchen in Larkhall on their nomination in The Food Awards Scotland 2022; recognises the hard work of the excellent team of staff in developing a successful business; celebrates Aroma's offering of artisanal delicacies in the town of Larkhall as well as the warm and welcoming atmosphere of the café; understands the challenges faced by the hospitality industry as a result of the Covid-19 pandemic; and further congratulates Aroma for overcoming these challenges to be nominated as one of the best cafés in South West Scotland.

423 Children's hospice funding

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 1

Siobhain McDonagh

That this House celebrates the work of children's hospices, which provide vital care and support to seriously ill babies, children, young people and their families; welcomes important progress made in funding for children's hospices in recent years by NHS England, including a planned increase in the Children's Hospice Grant to £25million by 2023/24; is concerned that NHS England is yet to commit to keeping the grant in place beyond 2023/2024; regrets the wide variation in local NHS funding for children's hospices in England and the negative impact that removing the NHS England Children's Hospice Grant could have on lifeline care and support; and calls for the grant to be protected and extended beyond 2023/24.

424 Shirley Bartynek at the Hamilton Advertiser

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 1

Angela Crawley

That this House notes journalist Shirley Bartynek is leaving the Hamilton Advertiser after more than twenty years having most recently served as deputy editor; understands that Shirley joined the Hamilton Advertiser in 2001 and has reported on the Hamilton area diligently since that time; commends the unstinting support the Hamilton Advertiser has given the local community over the years by standing up for its readers and holding those in power to account; further understands that Shirley will be a huge loss to local journalism; and wishes her well in her future endeavours.

425 World Osteoporosis Day

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 1

Judith Cummins

That this House supports World Osteoporosis Day on Thursday 20th October 2022; notes its purpose to increase awareness of this common and serious condition where bones become porous and more likely to break; is concerned that 3 million people in the UK are affected by Osteoporosis with more than 500,000 receiving hospital treatment as a result of the condition; acknowledges that one in three women and one in five men over 50 will have an Osteoporosis-related fracture; understands that women are at greater risk of Osteoporosis due to oestrogen production at the menopause; recognises that women over 45 spend more days in hospital because of osteoporosis than diabetes, heart attack or breast cancer; is disturbed that twenty-five per cent. of women have to endure more than three fractures before diagnosis; congratulates the Royal Osteoporosis Society for its ongoing efforts to prevent fractures throughout the UK; further notes their campaign to end the postcode lottery for fracture liaison services in England and Wales, which leaves an estimated 90,000 people without the treatment they need; supports the goal of increasing world-standard model of care for FLS; believes that increasing understanding of Osteoporosis risk factors and symptoms is essential to reducing suffering; recognises good osteoporosis and fracture care as essential to ageing well in the UK; and therefore supports World Osteoporosis Day and its goals.

426 2022 report of the UN Special Rapporteur on Freedom of Religion or Belief

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 1

Jim Shannon

That this House notes the 2022 report of the UN Special Rapporteur on Freedom of Religion or Belief; and further notes the Annex to this report which details reports of increasing insecurity facing members of the Baha'i religion in Iran, Yemen and Qatar; observes that Members of this House are receiving increasing expressions of concern by their Baha'i constituents on the growing repression of members of this peaceful faith; and urges the UK government to make specific mention of the plight of Baha'is in written and oral statements wherever possible across the human rights machinery of the United Nations and other international organisations.

427 Ugandan Asians at Tonfanau 50th anniversary exhibition

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 1

Liz Saville Roberts

That this House notes it is 50 years since President Idi Amin ordered the expulsion of 70,000 Asians from Uganda against a backdrop of rising anti-Indian sentiment, violence and killings in the country; further notes that 28,200 came to the UK in the autumn of 1972, around 1,500 of whom were accommodated for up to six months at the old army base at Tonfanau, Tywyn; recognises the welcome they were given by the local community who rallied around to provide the refugees with warm clothes, books, toys and activities; acknowledges the work involved in researching, collating material and organising the Ugandan Asians at Tonfanau special 50th Anniversary exhibition and event; pays tribute to the national programme British Ugandan Asians at 50, an initiative of The India Overseas Trust, to Praful Patel, the Trust's Chair and the only surviving member of the 1972 Uganda Resettlement Board, and to all those taking part in the project, including project coordinator Warwick Hawkins and former Tonfanau residents Chandrika Joshi, Praful Purohit and Karim Meghji; and wishes all the best for the tree planting ceremony and plaque unveiling at Tonfanau and other former resettlement camps.

428 Sheila Bailey

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 6

Navendu Mishra
Andrew Gwynne
Angela Rayner
Tony Lloyd
Mike Amesbury
Paula Barker

That this House pays tribute to the life and career of Councillor Sheila Bailey of Stockport Metropolitan Borough Council after she sadly passed away at the age of 74; acknowledges the 32 years of service that Councillor Bailey gave to her community since first being elected in 1990; recognises that her tireless work meant that she was much-loved by the Stockport Labour family, and highly respected by her peers on Stockport Council; holds in high regard the example Councillor Bailey set as a long-standing housing campaigner, in particular her role in establishing Viaduct Housing Partnership to deliver more affordable housing across the borough; acknowledges her work alongside her council activity as an Office Manager for former MP Andrew Bennett and current MP Andrew Gwynne; puts on record its condolences for her family, friends and colleagues; and notes that Cllr Bailey will be greatly missed by all who knew her in Stockport.

429 150 year anniversary of the birth of Dr Ralph Vaughan Williams OM

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 1

Valerie Vaz

That this House commemorates the life and work of composer Ralph Vaughan Williams, 12 October 1872 – 26 August 1958; celebrates his outstanding contribution to music; recognises his work was innovative and daring whilst respecting of English musical tradition; acknowledges that he enriched most musical forms, including symphonies, choral works, film scores, chamber music, opera and ballet including his Nine symphonies, and other celebrated works 'Fantasia on a Theme by Thomas Tallis' and 'The Lark Ascending', which is consistently rated one of the top ten greatest pieces of Music; recognises his travels across the English countryside to collect and catalogue over 800 folk songs; notes that for his contributions to music he received the Order of Merit; further recognises his work teaching and supporting young composers during his 20 years as a Professor of Composition at the Royal College of Music, and specifically his work mentoring a significant number of female musicians; notes that his composition 'O taste and see', originally written for HM the late Queen Elizabeth II's coronation was also played during her funeral; notes that he became the first conductor of the Leith Hill Musical Festival in 1905, which he continued until 1953; commends the Ralph Vaughan Williams Society for continuing his legacy, educating and informing the public on his life and work; and calls on the Government to recognise his role as one of the greatest English composers to ensure his work is taught in schools.

430 Financial restitution to women born in the 1950s

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 25

Ian Byrne
Jon Trickett
Kate Osborne
Mary Kelly Foy
Beth Winter
Olivia Blake

Grahame Morris
Mick Whitley
Rebecca Long Bailey
John McDonnell
Peter Dowd
Graham Stringer
Ms Marie Rimmer

Nadia Whittome
Bell Ribeiro-Addy
Claudia Webbe
Andy McDonald
Tony Lloyd
Yvonne Fovargue

Jeremy Corbyn
Ian Lavery
Lloyd Russell-Moyle
Richard Burgon
Barry Gardiner
Clive Lewis

That this House welcomes the positive interventions from many Members across the House on behalf of women born in the 1950s who have lost their pensions; pays tribute to constituents and campaigners in their ongoing fight for justice; notes that at least 3.8 million women have been impacted by the loss of their pensions from the age of 60 in three separate age hikes; recalls that 1950s born women were subject to discriminatory employment and pension laws; recognises that this included being excluded from some pensions schemes; further recognises that this had the negative effect for them of losing the opportunity to have the same level of pension as their partner or spouse; recognises that this has had the consequence of women in this position never being able to have equal pensions to men; puts on record that, combined, these measures have had a negative and profound impact for millions of women; recognises that this loss of income, coupled with the current dramatic rise in inflation and cost of fuel, food, essentials and bills, has exasperated already increased levels of poverty, deteriorating health and homelessness; further notes that pension age hikes mean that many are excluded from winter fuel and cost-of-living payments; and calls on the Government to enact a temporary special measure as permitted by international law to provide full restitution to all women born in the 1950s who have lost their pensions from the age of 60 because of the impact of the rise in retirement age.

431 Strangford College 25th Anniversary

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 1

Jim Shannon

That this House celebrates the 25th anniversary of Strangford Integrated College in Carrowdore, Strangford; notes the hard work and consistent efforts of all students and teachers; highlights its ethos of encouraging students on the importance of working hard and striving for the best; further notes the official opening of the school on 1 September 1997 and their continued success thus far; understands the importance of the proper functioning of the school for the rural community of which it lies, where many families choose to send their children for education; thanks the teachers for their efforts in ensuring that all pupils are given equal opportunities and pushed to be their very best; and wishes the school all the best for the next 25 years.

432 Irish Baptist College 130 Years Anniversary

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 1

Jim Shannon

That this House celebrates that the Irish Baptist College, established in Dublin, has been serving Irish Baptists for 130 years and has dedicated its existence to showing the United Kingdom God's faithfulness; praises the Gospel for constitutently training men and women for gospel service in a variety of spheres; further notes the gospel as a training ministry and recognises the multiple positions filled over the summer by new graduates; underlines the dedication to faith highlighted through the multiple gospel positions offered by the Baptist College; and thanks the College for the invaluable teaching it provides to people in regards to faith and our Lord and wishes them well for the future.

433 Investment zones

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 1

Jon Trickett

That this House expresses its deep alarm at the Chancellor of the Exchequer's announcement that the Government will implement investment zones in certain areas of the UK, including West Yorkshire; highlights the history of similar policies around the globe, particularly in former British colonies, which have often resulted in the suspension of full democratic rights in favour of the freedom of capital; notes that many areas which the Government wants to target with these zones are already held back communities; agrees with the concerns of many campaign groups, including environmental organisations, who are very worried about the future protection of the environment under these investment zones which could suspend planning rules, lead to more green belt being built upon and put the freedom of capital before the urgent need to protect our natural world as well as settled communities; recognises the argument by planning experts that suspending planning rules could create slums of the future and could mean developers scrap affordable housing, flood defences and environmental protections; and believes these zones will not promote investment in communities because what is needed is a Marshal Aid-style investment plan to level up all held back areas.

434 Yorkshire economy

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 1

Jon Trickett

That this House expresses its deep concerns about the regional economic imbalances in the UK and its impact on people on lower and middle incomes; notes that Yorkshire is one region that has been repeatedly held back economically due to the concentration of power in Westminster and the City of London; further notes that 263,507 children are living in poverty in Yorkshire, even though they often have at least one parent in work; highlights that 23 per cent of children in Yorkshire were on free school meals in 2021, 156,120 food parcels were distributed in that year and that now 3 in 5 Yorkshire parents think their children will be worse off than them; further highlights that median annual wages are nearly £10,000 a year less in Yorkshire than in London; believes that the future for many children in Yorkshire looks to be very difficult unless the Government takes real action now; further believes that regions not only require economic solutions but also need major political reform; calls on the Government to pursue large-scale investment in held back regions and to level up in a meaningful way, where decisions are made in Yorkshire, for Yorkshire by the people of Yorkshire.

435 School Uniform Banks

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 1

Jon Trickett

That this House is deeply concerned by the rates of poverty and deprivation in the United Kingdom; notes Legatum's estimate that 1.5 million more people will be pushed into poverty this year bringing the total number of people living in poverty to 15.5 million; highlights the extreme strain on family finances and the detrimental impact this is having on school children; commends the work being done by volunteers at School Uniform Banks in the constituency of Hemsworth who are helping to provide clothes to families who otherwise cannot afford them; and thanks all the people in Hemsworth constituency who have shown solidarity with others in their community by donating items of clothing to School Uniform Banks.

436 Immediate publication of the Office for Budget Responsibility draft forecast

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 1

Sarah Olney

That there be laid before this House a Return of any draft of the updated forecast produced by the Office for Budget Responsibility given to the Chancellor between 3 October 2022 and 10 October 2022, not later than 11.00am on 12 October 2022.

437 Sir Peter Bazalgette lecture on public broadcasting

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 1

Sir Peter Bottomley

That this House calls on the Government to read and absorb the points made clearly and briefly in the commendable Jocelyn Hay lecture by Sir Peter Bazalgette to the Voice of the Listener & Viewer audience on Tuesday 11 October 2022.

438 Cerebral Palsy and Transition to Adulthood report

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 7

Mary Kelly Foy
John McDonnell
Jeremy Corbyn
Mick Whitley
Grahame Morris
Rachael Maskell

Clive Lewis

That this House welcomes the recommendations from the All-Party Parliamentary Group for Cerebral Palsy's report: Transition to Adulthood; urges the Government to implement an Access to Education, Employment Rights and Training Opportunities (AEERT) Bill Speech to open education, employment, and training opportunities to all of those living with cerebral palsy and other lifelong, chronic, fluctuating conditions; believes that each child and young person with cerebral palsy and their family must have a dedicated lead care professional to act as an advocate, coordinator and support from the point of diagnosis through to the completion of their transition to adulthood; further believes that each integrated care system must enhance the empowerment of young people living with cerebral palsy by creating dedicated budgets for the individual to access the necessary resources and services from the public, independent and voluntary sectors to prevent the deterioration of their health and wellbeing in adulthood; is grateful for the contributions of those who submitted evidence for that report; and supports the recommendations contained within that report and calls on the Government to implement the recommendations in that report at the earliest opportunity.

439 Dolffanog Fawr Guest House, Tywyn and Trefeddian Hotel and the Good Hotel Guide 2022

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 1

Liz Saville Roberts

That this House warmly congratulates both Dolffanog Fawr Guest House, Tywyn and Trefeddian Hotel, Aberdyfi for their success in the Good Hotel Guide 2022; notes that Dolffanog Fawr is an 18th Century farmhouse, recently converted into one of the finest small luxury guest houses in Snowdonia and came top in the fishing category; further notes that the Trefeddian Hotel, situated just outside Aberdyfi has been in the Cave-Browne-Cave family for over 100 years and was awarded the Editor's Choice Seaside Hotel for 2022 and came top in the golfing category; praises the hard work of all the staff working at Dolffanog Fawr and Trefeddian Hotel in securing these prestigious awards after the pressure placed on the leisure and hospitality sector during the covid-19 pandemic; and wishes the businesses every success for the future.

440 Ian Hamilton KC

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 6

Gavin Newlands
Mhairi Black
Ian Blackford
Kirsten Oswald
Brendan O'Hara
Dave Doogan

That this House mourns the passing of Ian Hamilton, KC, who has passed away at the age of 97; salutes his long and distinguished career as a member of the Faculty of Advocates and as one of Scotland pre-eminent criminal lawyers; notes his upbringing in Paisley as a the son of a tailor who went on to attend the John Neilson Institution in the town, before being called up for National Service and then to study at the University of Glasgow; celebrates his role in the liberation of the Stone of Scone, also known as the Stone of Destiny, on Christmas Eve 1950; welcomes his landmark achievement alongside Gavin Vernon, Kay Matheson, and Alan Stuart in securing the Stone and returning it to Scotland following its theft by Edward I of England in 1296; notes the work undertaken by monumental mason Bertie Gray of Glasgow following the Stone's liberation in making repairs to the Stone and making a number of copies of the Stone; acknowledges the return of a stone to Arbroath Abbey on 11th April 1951 from whence it was again taken from Scotland and installed in Westminster Abbey; celebrates Ian Hamilton's long service in campaigning for Scottish independence and the causes and ideals that were fundamental to him as a human being; and notes that while he will not see Scottish independence that the work he and many others have done over the decades have brought that achievement closer than ever.

441 Fracking

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 1

Cat Smith

That this House opposes the lifting of the moratorium on fracking.

442 10-year route to settlement

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 1

Bell Ribeiro-Addy

That this House believes migrants benefit this country in many ways and deserve to be treated fairly and compassionately during their route to settlement in the UK; further believes that a 10-year route to settlement is too long and forces migrants on this route into unnecessary harm for an extended period of time; acknowledges the research in Migrant Voice's report: Destroying Hopes, Dreams, and Lives: How the UK visa costs and process impact migrants' lives which details how families are pushed into poverty, mental health problems, and exploitative work as well as huge amounts of debt while on the 10-year route; recognises that due to long wait times from Home Office processing applications and renewals the 10-year route can last much longer than 10 years; and calls on the Government to abolish the failed 10-year route to settlement and place everyone on this route onto a shorter one in order to reduce the unnecessary pressure put on migrants in the UK.

443 Visa fees and migrant's health and wellbeing

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 1

Bell Ribeiro-Addy

That this House believes migrants who come to this country should not have to pay extortionate sums of money to apply for or to renew their visa; is concerned by the report by Migrant Voice, Destroying Hopes, Dreams, and Lives: How the UK visa costs and process impact migrants' lives, which outlines the effects excessive visa fees have on the lives of migrants and assesses how these cause mental health issues, large levels of debt and in some instances, food poverty; is outraged that that Home Office profits from these fees, with the cost of processing a visa only accounting for between 10-15% of the fee charged; believes this is wrong and that the Home Office should not profit off of migrants, particularly when doing so negatively impacts the health and wellbeing of migrants; further believes that migrants and their family should not have to pay tens of thousands of pounds during their route to settlement; calls on the Home Office to reduce the cost of visa applications to the administrative cost of visas only; and further calls on the Home Office to remove the charge entirely for applicants under the age of 18.

444 FLEXcon 25th anniversary in business

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 1

Peter Grant

That this House congratulates FLEXcon Europe on their 25th year of business at their manufacturing site in Glenrothes; highlights that FLEXcon are the leading global manufacturer of coated and laminate films and adhesives which can be found in a huge range of products used globally; recognizes FLEXcon's work to safeguard their workforce and ensure consumer continuity throughout the Covid-19 pandemic; and thanks all the staff at FLEXcon for their continued hard work and wishes them all the best in the years to come.

445 Leviton Network Solutions Europe 50th anniversary in business

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 1

Peter Grant

That this House congratulates Leviton on celebrating their 50th year in business in Glenrothes; notes that the company formerly known as Brand-Rex (1972–2018) has been a major employer in the town during this time and is one of their two manufacturing sites in the UK making cables for cabling and connectivity systems for data networks used in almost every walk of life with around 200 employees currently; highlights the range of sectors that benefit from their products including airport traffic control to banking and much more; commends Leviton on their hard work supporting local organisations including Muirhead Outreach and Glenrothes Foodbank, and for their work on keeping plastic pellets out of the Ocean by staff taking part in the Great Nurdle Hunt; further highlights Leviton's commitment to Auchmuty High School with the Developing Young Workforce initiative; commends Leviton's efforts in being among the first to become carbon neutral in 2011 by cutting down on energy consumption and raw materials being used as well as striving to support environmental projects and becoming the US parent company's blueprint for its global sustainability plans; and wishes Ian Wilkie, Managing Director in the UK since 2016, and all the hard working staff all the best for the next 50 years and beyond.

446 Stella Maris 25th World Congress and Centenary Celebrations

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 1

Patrick Grady

That this House congratulates Stella Maris, also known as the Apostleship of the Sea, which held its 25th World Congress and delayed centenary celebrations in Glasgow on 3-5th October 2022; notes that the organisation was founded in the city on 4th October 1920 to support the welfare of seafarers, and has grown to become the largest ship visiting network in the world, providing seafarers, fishers and their families with practical and pastoral support, information, and a friend in times of need; further notes that the organisation's chaplains, staff and volunteers are present in hundreds of ports in over 50 countries around the world, reaching thousands of fishers and seafarers each year; welcomes the message of support and encouragement sent by Pope Francis to delegates at the Congress; and wishes all those involved in Stella Maris the very best as it enters its second century of service to all those who live and work on the seas.

447 Ross Cunningham and Mountains Mend Minds campaign

Tabled: 11/10/22 Signatories: 1

Peter Grant

That this House commends the work of Ross Cunningham from Glenrothes through his Mountains Mend Minds web site and social media accounts; notes that Mountains Mend Minds encourages people of all levels of fitness to enjoy the physical and mental health benefits of walking in the hills and mountains; notes that Ross took up mountain walking in 2017 while going through a period of depression and continues to be an active campaigner on behalf of people with mental health problems; commends his numerous fundraising activities, most recently in raising money for the Scottish Association for Mental Health (SAMH) by climbing to the highest points of almost all of the 29 mainland local authorities in Scotland; recognises his work to encourage people to enjoy not only the great mountains of Scotland but more modest walks near his home in Fife; and congratulates him in his recent achievement in completing the ascent of all 282 Munros, becoming the 7,227th Munro-bagger to be recognised as a compleator by the Scottish Mountaineering Club.