A. CALENDAR OF BUSINESS

A. CALENDAR OF BUSINESS

Business in either Chamber may be changed, and further business added, up to the rising of the House on the day before it is to be taken, and is therefore provisional.

TUESDAY 25 OCTOBER

CHAMBER

QUESTIONS

- 11.30am Questions to the Secretary of State for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy

BILL: TEN MINUTE RULE MOTION

Craig Mackinlay

That leave be given to bring in a Bill to require community pharmacies and other providers of NHS-funded prescriptions to show, on the patient label, the prevailing Drug Tariff value of the items dispensed; and for connected purposes.

Notes:

The Member moving and a Member opposing this Motion may each speak for up to 10 minutes.

RETAINED EU LAW (REVOCATION AND REFORM)
BILL: SECOND READING

Caroline Lucas

That this House declines to give a Second Reading to the Retained EU Law (Revocation and Reform) Bill because while it makes provision relating to retained EU law, it risks endangering environmental and public health; could lead to thousands of pieces of essential legislation on workers' rights, consumer standards and environmental protections being eroded; constitutes the most significant threat to environmental law in recent UK history; would give Ministers significant executive powers to remove or weaken legislation and could lead to a deregulatory race to the bottom, rather than upholding the 2019 Conservative manifesto commitment to maintain high standards; risks breaching the UK's commitments under the UK-EU Trade and Co-operation Agreement; creates an unnecessary cliff edge because the sunset clause laid out in the bill would automatically revoke legislation on 31st December 2023 which could lead to significant gaps in the UK's legislative framework; could have potentially far-reaching impacts on the UK's environment, workers and businesses, of which the Government has not published an assessment; will have major and hugely uncertain impacts on devolved competences, undermines Parliamentary scrutiny and fails to provide a process for legislation to be properly considered, updated and strengthened; would create an unstable operating environment for businesses; will come at significant cost to the Treasury at a time of economic uncertainty for the UK; and threatens the delivery of the UK's climate and environmental targets, rather than taking the action necessary to protect and restore nature and limit global temperatures to 1.5 degrees.

A. CALENDAR OF BUSINESS

B. REMAINING ORDERS AND NOTICES

This House declines to give a Second Reading to the Bill of Rights Bill, because the Bill attacks the freedoms and liberties protected by the Human Rights Act in an ideologically motivated way, is of supreme constitutional significance and will impact on the rights of individuals for many years to come but has not undergone pre-legislative scrutiny in line with the recommendations of the chairs of relevant cross-party committees, ignores the results of two consultations into the Act, vastly exceeds the manifesto commitment to 'update' the Act, does not come with publication of relevant and robust impact assessments, ignores the fundamental principle that human rights are not earned or contingent on a person's conduct or character but are attached to a person by virtue of their humanity, undermines migrants' rights at a time of unprecedented international turmoil, threatens the Good Friday Agreement, risks severing the ties between domestic rights and Strasbourg jurisprudence leading to a divergence in rights protection leaving the UK out of step with other members of the Council of Europe at a time of war in Europe, fails to improve citizens' rights to access nature and to live in a safe climate, fails to improve the rights of children, disabled people and future generations, undermines efforts to tackle violence against women and girls, and distorts and undermines this country's democracy by increasing the power of the executive over citizens by removing and weakening rights instead of enshrining and improving them.
