*Reasons Committees: Reports13 Financial Services and Markets Bill: Reasons Committee

Andrew Griffith reported that the Committee had agreed the following Reason:

Lords Amendment 10

Because financial inclusion is a broader social policy issue, the Financial Conduct Authority is already able to take action on issues related to financial inclusion within its remit and it would not be appropriate to amend the regulators' objectives without due consultation as it would create uncertainty for FCA-regulated entities.

14 National Security Bill: Reasons Committee

Tom Tugendhat reported that the Committee had agreed the following Reason:

Lords Amendment 22B

Because the law already makes sufficient provision in relation to donations to political parties.

*General Committees: Reports15 First Delegated Legislation Committee

James Gray (Chair) reported the draft Building Safety (Responsible Actors and Prohibitions) Regulations 2023.
