Other Proceedings

Lords Messages

12Employment Relations (Flexible Working) Bill

The Lords agree to the Employment Relations (Flexible Working) Bill without amendment.

13Equipment Theft (Prevention) Bill

The Lords agree to the Equipment Theft (Prevention) Bill without amendment.

14Child Support (Enforcement) Bill

The Lords agree to the Child Support (Enforcement) Bill without amendment.

15Women, Peace and Security Bill [Lords]

The Lords have passed a Bill to support women in UK sponsored and supported conflict prevention, peace processes, mediation and diplomatic delegations; to ensure systematic gender consideration and responsiveness in UK foreign and defence policy; and for connected purposes, to which they desire the agreement of the Commons.

Reasons Committees: Reports

16Illegal Migration Bill: Reasons Committee

Robert Jenrick reported that the Committee had agreed the following Reasons:

Lords Amendments 1B, 7B and 90D

Because Amendment 1B is unnecessary, as the courts should have regard to the UK's international legal obligations in interpreting legislation; because Amendment 7B is inappropriate because the Bill already provides for two classes of suspensive claims with a right of appeal to the Upper Tribunal, so an application for judicial review should not provide an additional route for suspending removal; and because Amendment 90D is contrary to the purpose of the Bill to prevent and deter unlawful migration.

Lords Amendment 9B

Because the Amendment is contrary to the purpose of the Bill to prevent and deter unlawful migration.

Lords Amendment 23B

Because the Amendment is unnecessary as an LGBT person who is a national of a country specified in the Amendment and who makes a protection claim will not be returned to their home country and can make a serious harm suspensive claim in the event that it is proposed to remove them to a safe third country, and because removal of any person to any country will only be done where the arrangements to do this are lawful.

Lords Amendment 33B

Because the Amendment is contrary to the purpose of the Bill to prevent and deter unlawful migration.

Lords Amendment 56B

Because the Bill already makes sufficient provision to enable a potential victim of modern slavery to remain in the UK where the Secretary of State considers it necessary for the person to do so for the purpose of cooperating with a public authority which is investigating their exploitation.

Lords Amendment 102B

Because the Amendment is unnecessary as the Government has already committed to implement additional safe and legal routes as proposed in the report to be published under clause 59 as soon as practicable and in any event by the end of 2024.

Lords Amendment 103B

Because the Amendment is unnecessary as section 1 of the Crime and Courts Act 2013 already provides for the National Crime Agency to have functions (including duties to publish information) in relation to combating organised crime; this function encompasses organised immigration crime.

Lords Amendments 107B and 107C

Because the Amendments are unnecessary as the Government already works in collaboration with the UN High Commission for Refugees and others in response to refugee crises and in tackling human trafficking.

17 Strikes (Minimum Service Levels) Bill: Reasons Committee

Kevin Hollinrake reported that the Committee had agreed the following Reason:

Lords Amendment 2D

Because the Bill already contains adequate provision for consultation and parliamentary control of regulations made under it.
