CHAMBER AND COMMITTEE INFORMATION

This document is compiled by the Table Office as a guide to events likely to take place in and around the Chamber on Tuesday 7 November. It also includes a list of Select Committee meetings planned for that day. From Wednesday 8 November, the Order of Business and Summary Agenda will be published daily. These and other House business papers can be obtained online or in hard copy from the Vote Office.

TUESDAY 7 NOVEMBER 2023

The State Opening of Parliament will take place. The House will meet at 11.25am for the King's Speech. Members may follow the Speaker and party leaders to hear the speech delivered in the Lords. Afterwards the House will suspend until 2.30pm.

After introductory statements by the Speaker, the Outlawries Bill will receive its first reading.

This is a purely formal proceeding whereby the House asserts its right to deliberate on matters of its own choosing before those proposed by the Government in the King's Speech: no Bill is produced nor is there any debate. The debate on the King's Speech is then opened. Two backbench Members from the Government side will propose and second a motion for an Address (thanking the King for the Speech), after which the Leader of the Opposition and the Prime Minister will speak. Debate on the King's Speech may continue until 10.00pm on this day and will be resumed on subsequent days. The debate normally lasts for six sitting days: the Speaker will announce at the start of the debate which subjects are to be the main subject of debate on each day.

SUBSEQUENT DAYS

Debate on the King's Speech will be resumed on subsequent days. On the final day of the debate the House votes on the motion, and there may be votes on amendments to the motion on the penultimate and final days.

ADJOURNMENT DEBATES

Subjects that will be raised on the Motion for the Adjournment of the House up to Monday 13 November:

Applications should be made on MemberHub or in writing to the Table Office. Emailed applications must be submitted from a Member's own email account. Application forms are available on the Table Office page on the Parliamentary intranet. The ballot will take place on Thursday 9 November.

FORTHCOMING WESTMINSTER HALL DEBATES

There will be no Westminster Hall debates in the new Session of Parliament until the debate on the King's Speech has concluded (Standing Order No. 10\(2\)\(a\)). The new rota for answering Departments will be published in the Order Paper as soon as it is available, and Members will be able to submit applications when that rota is published.

QUESTIONS

All Questions and motions fell at Prorogation and Questions from the 2022-23 Session have not been saved on MemberHub. Questions could not be answered during Prorogation and Questions that did not receive an answer before Parliament prorogued can be tabled in the new Session. They will not be re-tabled automatically. .

Any Questions received during Prorogation will be treated as having been received on Tuesday 7 November. Members may table a maximum of five Named Day Questions during the period between Prorogation and the rise of the House on Tuesday 7 November.

The Table Office will be providing its usual services from 10.00am on Tuesday 7 November. The earliest date for which a Question may be set down for named day written answer will be Monday 13 November. There will be no Question Time on the first three sitting days of the new Session.
