INTRODUCTION

This document has been compiled by the Table Office as a guide to events likely to take place in and around the Chamber ahead of the King's Speech on Wednesday 17 July, and on subsequent days. The usual Order of Business and Summary Agenda will be published daily from Thursday 18 July.

WEDNESDAY 17 JULY – THE STATE OPENING OF PARLIAMENT

The State Opening of Parliament will take place on Wednesday 17 July. The House will meet at 11.25am for the King's Speech. Once Black Rod has summoned the Commons, Members may follow the Speaker and party leaders to hear the speech delivered in the House of Lords. Afterwards, the House will meet at 2.30 pm for the start of the King's Speech debate.

The debate takes place on a Motion formally thanking the King for his speech and will be followed by an end-of-day adjournment debate on the adequacy of health services in rural areas (Jamie Stone).

Sitting days after the King's Speech

The debate on the King's Speech usually lasts for six sitting days. The Speaker usually announces the subjects to be debated on each day at the start of the debate on the first day.

On the final day of the debate on the King's Speech, the House votes on the Motion. There may be votes on amendments to the Motion on the penultimate and final days.

The King's Speech debate is the first opportunity for maiden speeches. Further guidance on the King's Speech and maiden speeches is available on ParliNet, as well as from the Table Office and the Information Hub.

From the day after State Opening (Thursday 18 July), an Order of Business and Summary Agenda setting out each day's business in the Chamber will be published daily.

These and other House business papers can be obtained online, on the House Papers app, in hard copy from the Vote Office or from the Information Hub.

Written Parliamentary Questions and Early Day Motions (EDMs) can be submitted via MemberHub from 9.00am on Tuesday 9 July. However, they are not formally tabled until the day of State Opening. Up to five of these may be Named Day Questions, which have a specific date set for answer (the earliest date for answer for Named Day Questions is two clear days from the day of tabling e.g. the earliest date for answer for Named Day Questions tabled on Wednesday 17 July will be Monday 22 July). The remainder are Ordinary Questions, which usually receive an answer within two weeks.
