House of Commons

Tuesday 23 July 2024

Votes and Proceedings

---

The House met at 11.30 am.

Prayers

- 1 Questions to the Secretary of State for Health and Social Care
- 2 King's Speech (Motion for an Address) (last day)

Debate resumed (Order, 22 July).

Question again proposed, That an humble Address be presented to His Majesty, as follows:

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland in Parliament assembled, beg leave to offer our humble thanks to Your Majesty for the Gracious Speech which Your Majesty has addressed to both Houses of Parliament.

Subject: Immigration and home affairs

Amendment proposed, at the end of the Question, to add 'but respectfully regret that the Gracious Speech does not commit to boosting defence spending to 2.5% of GDP by 2030 with a fully funded plan, fails to include measures that provide an adequate deterrent to migrants crossing the channel illegally, fails to mention rural communities, farming and fishing, does not include a legally binding target to enhance the UK's food security or a commitment to increase the UK-wide agriculture budget by £1 billion over the course of the Parliament, introduces new burdens on businesses without sufficient measures to support them, fails to set out a concrete plan to tackle the unsustainable post-covid rise in the welfare bill, does not adequately protect family finances and the UK's energy security in the move to net zero, and fails to provide adequate protections for pensioners and working people to keep more of the money they have worked hard for.'—(Mr James Cleverly.)

The Deputy Speaker announced a time limit on backbench speeches (Standing Order No. 47(1)).

3 Speaker's Statement: Election of Deputy Speakers

The Speaker announced the result of the ballot held today for the election of Deputy Speakers, who would take up their posts tomorrow (Standing Order No. 2A).

Ms Nusrat Ghani was elected Chairman of Ways and Means.

Judith Cummins was elected First Deputy Chairman of Ways and Means.

Caroline Nokes was elected Second Deputy Chairman of Ways and Means.

4 King's Speech (Motion for an Address) (last day) (resumed)

The debate was resumed.

Question put, That the Amendment be made.

The House divided.

Division No. 2

Ayes: 117 (Tellers: Joy Morrissey, Mike Wood)

Noes: 384 (Tellers: Christian Wakeford, Taiwo Owatemi)

Question negatived.

Another Amendment proposed, at the end of the Question, to add 'but respectfully regret that the Gracious Speech fails to include immediate measures to abolish the two-child limit to Universal Credit; recognise that this policy is pushing children into poverty; further recognise that 1.6 million children are currently impacted and maintaining this policy will result in 670,000 additional children suffering poverty by the end of this Parliament; believe that eradicating child poverty must be a primary priority for the newly-elected Government; and therefore call on the Government, as a vital first step in tackling child poverty, to immediately abolish the two-child limit.'.—
(Stephen Flynn.)

Question put forthwith, That the Amendment be made (Standing Order No. 33).

The House divided.

Division No. 3

Ayes: 103 (Tellers: Kirsty Blackman, Ben Lake)

Noes: 363 (Tellers: Christian Wakeford, Taiwo Owatemi)

Question negatived.

Another Amendment proposed, at the end of the Question, to add 'but, while welcoming measures aimed at upholding standards in public life, which have been neglected under UK, Scottish and Welsh Governments in recent years, humbly regret that the Gracious Speech does not include sufficient measures to address the crisis in health and care, such as the introduction of a legal right to see a GP within seven days, a guarantee for cancer patients to start treatment within 62 days from urgent referral, free personal care in England, better support for carers, and a cross-party commission on social care; and call on the Government to stop the scandal of sewage dumping against which the previous Government failed to take action, including by replacing Ofwat with a new regulator, to support families with the cost of living and to tackle poverty, including by introducing a national food strategy, extending free school meals to all children in poverty, and by scrapping the two-child benefit cap, to ensure that rural communities and farmers receive adequate support, and to reform the system for parliamentary elections by replacing first-past-the-post with proportional representation, so that every vote counts.'.—(Christine Jardine.)

Question put forthwith, That the Amendment be made (Standing Order No. 33).

The House divided.

Division No. 4

Ayes: 85 (Tellers: Jamie Stone, Munira Wilson)
