That this House declines to give a Second Reading to the House of Lords (Hereditary Peers) Bill, because it fails to abolish the House of Lords.

Sir Oliver Dowden

John Glen

That this House declines to give a Second Reading to the House of Lords (Hereditary Peers) Bill because it is not an acceptable or effective method of enacting major constitutional change, because it proposes a significant alteration to the composition of the House of Lords which should not be considered in isolation from other changes, having regard to the undertakings given by the then Government in 1999, because it drip-feeds changes that hinder proper scrutiny of measures that could change the relationship between the two Houses, because it risks unintended consequences, does not reflect the lack of political consensus on House of Lords reform and does not provide for full consultation and pre-legislative scrutiny which would give the opportunity to consider the case for overall reform, seek cross-party engagement on proposals, and review the implications of all proposals.

2. House of Lords (Hereditary Peers) Bill: Programme

No debate (Standing Order No. 83A(7))

Pat McFadden

That the following provisions shall apply to the House of Lords (Hereditary Peers) Bill:
