URGENT QUESTIONS AND STATEMENTS

12.30pm

Urgent Questions (if any)

Ministerial Statements (if any)

BUSINESS OF THE DAY

1. Ten Minute Rule Motion: Regulation of bailiffs (assessment and report)

Up to 20 minutes (Standing Order No. 23)

Mr Luke Charters

That leave be given to bring in a Bill to require the Secretary of State to publish an assessment of the effectiveness of current regulation of the debt collection and civil enforcement sectors and to report to Parliament on the potential merits of statutory regulation of those sectors; and for connected purposes.

Notes:

The Member moving and a Member opposing this Motion may each speak for up to 10 minutes.

2. Opposition Day (8th Allotted Day)

Until 7.00pm (Standing Order No. 9\(3\))

■ Business and the economy

Andrew Griffith

Rebecca Harris

Gareth Davies

Mike Wood

David Simmonds

Sir Ashley Fox

Gregory Stafford

That this House regrets that unemployment is rising and causing misery for young people in particular, that this Government has displayed a negligible understanding of business and that investors and entrepreneurs are being driven overseas; further regrets that over 200,000 businesses have closed since Labour took office, as a result of the Government's policies to raise employers' National Insurance contributions, in breach of the Labour Party manifesto commitment, to scrap Business Property Relief, to impose £4.5 billion of additional costs on businesses through the Employment Rights Bill and increases to business rates; and calls on the Government to urgently change course to support jobseekers, small and medium-sized enterprises, family businesses and entrepreneurs who take risks to create wealth and jobs that benefit people across the country.

Amendment (a)

Sarah Olney

Ed Davey

Daisy Cooper

Leave out from "particular" to end and insert "especially after people endured years of economic mismanagement under the previous Government, which damaged business confidence, hit living standards and sent the cost of living soaring; notes that the current Government has unfairly penalised small businesses with its misguided Employers National Insurance increase; further notes that they have undermined treasured high street businesses by reducing business rates relief and failing to properly reform the system; also notes that they are threatening family-owned firms through unfair changes to Business and Agricultural Property Relief; notes that millions of people remain economically inactive due to ill-health, largely due to the ongoing crisis in the health and care systems; and calls on the Government to take bold action to boost the economy, including by scrapping the unfair National Insurance jobs tax, replacing business rates with a fair Commercial Landowner Levy, standing up for family-owned businesses, and urgently negotiating a new UK-EU customs union that will benefit Britain's economy and public finances."

■ Immigration

Chris Philp

Rebecca Harris

Matt Vickers

Mike Wood

Katie Lam

Sir Ashley Fox

That this House regrets that there have been a record-breaking number of small boat crossings, amounting to over 12,000 this year alone and a lack of action from the Government to tackle this; further regrets that the Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Bill scraps the Government's ability to remove illegal immigrants to a safe third country, designed as an effective deterrent; and calls on the Government to support the Immigration and Visas Bill introduced by the Shadow Home Secretary, which will prevent foreign nationals, including rape gang perpetrators, from exploiting the courts with spurious human rights claims to avoid deportation, double the residency requirement for Indefinite Leave to Remain and ensure that those who have become a burden can be removed, introduce tighter visa rules for civil partners, allow deportation of all foreign national offenders, and introduce a binding cap on migration, to be set by a vote in Parliament.

Amendment (a)

Carla Denyer

Ellie Chowns

Siân Berry

Adrian Ramsay

Leave out from "House" to end and insert "condemns the abhorrent, xenophobic and racist rhetoric which dominates the political conversation on immigration, and discriminatory, inhumane policies which have accompanied this, in particular legislative measures brought in by the previous Government to deny refugees the right to seek sanctuary in the UK and exclude victims of modern slavery from protections, waving aside human rights obligations; regrets that the Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Bill is a missed opportunity to repeal many of these harmful policies; celebrates the huge contribution that migrants make to the UK, including to public services, communities and economy; recognises that as valued members of society, immigrants should have fair treatment and protections; respects the role that the UK has played in helping to shape the international rules-based order, including its contribution to the drafting and early ratification of the European Convention on Human Rights in the aftermath of the horrors of World War Two; and calls for the asylum system to be urgently updated to provide safe routes for refugees in line with the principle that human rights are universal and belong to everyone by virtue of shared humanity.”

Amendment (b)The Prime Minister*Secretary Yvette Cooper*Dame Angela Eagle*Seema Malhotra*Sir Alan Campbell

Leave out from “House” to end and insert “notes that 127,896 people crossed the Channel while the previous Government was in office, as a criminal smuggling industry took hold on the French coast; further notes that 84,151 of those people arrived while the previous Government’s £700 million Rwanda scheme was in force, with only four volunteers travelling to Kigali during that time; welcomes the fact that the current Government deployed the 1,000 staff working on that scheme to process asylum decisions and deportations instead, resulting in 24,000 people with no right to be in the UK being removed in just nine months; further welcomes the progress made since July 2024 in establishing the Border Security Command, cracking down on illegal working, and increasing the resources allocated to identifying, disrupting and dismantling smuggling gangs; and looks forward to the crucial agreements reached with France, Germany, Italy, and Iraq to increase enforcement cooperation taking full effect, and the counter-terror powers introduced in the Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Bill becoming law.”

Amendment (c)Lisa Smart*Ed Davey*Wendy Chamberlain

Leave out from “House” to end and insert “condemns the previous Government for the enormous damage it did to the immigration and asylum system, shattering public trust and confidence, putting unnecessary costs onto taxpayers and businesses, and failing to respect people’s basic dignity; notes with pride the UK’s proud history of welcoming people seeking to build their lives here and refugees fleeing war and persecution, and celebrates their contributions to the economy, culture and communities; calls on the Government to establish a fair, effective immigration system that works for the UK and treats everyone with dignity and respect; further notes that the previous Government dramatically increased the care sector’s reliance on care workers from overseas; and further calls on the Government to introduce a higher Carer’s Minimum Wage to boost recruitment and retention of care workers in the UK.”

Notes:

The selection of the matters to be debated has been made by the Leader of the Opposition (Standing Order No. 14\(2\)).
