1 Royal Albert Hall Bill [Lords]: Second Reading

3 Statement: Launch of the Parental Leave Review (Justin Madders)

4 Clean air (human rights): Motion for leave to bring in a Bill (Standing Order No. 23)

carrying out their duties under this Act; and for connected purposes;

5 Universal Credit and Personal Independence Payment Bill: Second Reading

Motion made and Question proposed,
That the Universal Credit and Personal Independence Payment Bill be now read a second time.

Amendment proposed, to leave out from 'That' to the end of the Question and add 'this House, whilst noting the need for the reform of the social security system, and agreeing with the Government's principles for providing support to people into work and protecting people who cannot work, declines to give a Second Reading to the Universal Credit and Personal Independence Payment Bill because its provisions have not been subject to a formal consultation with disabled people, or co-produced with them, or their carers; because the Office for Budget Responsibility is not due to publish its analysis of the employment impact of these reforms until the autumn of 2025; because the majority of the additional employment support funding will not be in place until the end of the decade; because while acknowledging protection for current claimants, the Government has yet to produce its own impact assessment on the impact of future claimants of Personal Independence Payment (PIP) and Universal Credit limited capability for work and related activity and the number of people, including children, who will fall into poverty or experience worsening mental or physical health as a result, nor how many carers will lose carers allowance; because the Government has not published an assessment of the impact of these reforms on health or care needs; and because the Government is still awaiting the findings of the Minister for Social Security and Disability's review into the assessment for

PIP and Sir Charlie Mayfield's independent review into the role of employers and government in boosting the employment of disabled people and people with long-term health conditions.'.—(Rachael Maskell.)

The Speaker announced a time limit on backbench speeches (Standing Order No. 47(1)).
