8 English Devolution and Community Empowerment Bill: Second Reading

Motion made and Question proposed, That the English Devolution and Community Empowerment Bill be now read a second time.

Amendment proposed, to leave out from 'That' to the end of the Question and add 'That this House declines to give a Second Reading to the English Devolution and Community Empowerment Bill, because the Bill does nothing to empower local communities, but instead contains measures reducing the democratically elected representation of communities and enables the Government to impose local government restructuring on communities, irrespective of local opinion, disregarding local geography and identity; because bureaucratic restructuring of local government will cost money and reduce focus on housing delivery with no evidence that it will deliver better services; because the Bill will lead to greater costs for residents by creating new mayoral precepts, increasing borrowing powers, and raising parking charges on motorists, and adding more local bureaucrats as mayoral-appointed commissioners; and because the Bill will result in higher council tax bills for hardworking families, at a time when local government is facing increased costs pressures due to unfunded rises in employers' National Insurance contributions.'.—(Sir James Cleverly.)

The Deputy Speaker announced a time limit on backbench speeches (Standing Order No. 47(1)).
