Other Proceedings

Changes to Notices Given

11A34 Slip Road Safety (East Ilsley and Beedon) Bill

Bill withdrawn.

Reasons Committees: Reports

12Employment Rights Bill: Reasons Committee

Secretary Peter Kyle (Chair) reported that the Committee had agreed the following Reasons:

Lords Amendment 1

Because it is appropriate for workers who meet the qualifying criteria to receive a guaranteed hours offer without having to make a request for one.

Lords Amendment 7

Because it is unnecessary; the Bill already produces the effect provided for by the Amendment.

Lords Amendment 8

Because defining 'short notice' in the Bill would pre-empt consultation and limit the Government's discretion.

Lords Amendments 23 and 107 to 120

Because it is appropriate for protection from unfair dismissal to apply from the beginning of a person's employment.

Lords Amendment 46

Because it is inappropriate to make changes in the manner proposed to the protections for workers who make protected disclosures and to the duties of employers in relation to such disclosures.

Lords Amendment 47

Because requiring employers to permit workers to be accompanied at disciplinary or grievance hearings by persons other than trade union officials or other workers would likely lead to an increase in the cost, complexity and length of such hearings.

Lords Amendment 48

Because the amendment is unnecessary.

Lords Amendment 49

Because the amendment is unnecessary.

Lords Amendment 60

Because the existing legal framework does not prevent children from carrying out suitable voluntary work on heritage railways and tramways.

Lords Amendments 61 and 72

Because it is appropriate to remove the requirement for members of a trade union to opt in to contributing to the political fund of the union.

Lords Amendment 62

Because it is appropriate to remove the provision that industrial action is regarded as having the support of a ballot only if at least 50% of those eligible to vote in the ballot did so.

Lords Amendment 121

Because the Bill already enables employers to offer terms and conditions of employment that are more favourable than those determined by the School Support Staff Negotiating Body.
